1812.

Congress has just passed a law giving a Pension of $8 per month to all Soldiers of the War of 1812, who served 14 days or more, in battle—and the same pension to the widows of all such soldiers.

This entitles all to a pension who have received Land Warrants.

All desiring the pension, can obtain it, by applying to me in person at my office, or by letter.

I have all the old Rolls, on which is borne the names of all Soldiers of the War of 1812, with the place and length of service and date of discharge, and all facts, and I can give full and exact information in every case.

Also I am in possession of most of the Land Warrants granted to these soldiers.

No person, east of Portland, has these rolls, except myself and A. J. Chapman, Esq., of Bangor. He has equal facilities for obtaining these pensions. He was formerly a clerk in my office.

Androscoggin.

Auburn is to issue $10,000 in five per cent. bonds, to meet outstanding liabilities.

Some persons who were taking a sail on the Androscoggin Sunday in a skiff, were upset. They clung to the boat and were rescued by a man who went to their assistance from Lewiston side. A good rowing was their penalty for infringing on the Sabbath.

Mr. Google, blacksmith, of the firm of Dearing & Google, Bates street, Lewiston, and some workmen were repairing a heavy piece of iron for hauling water pipe Monday morning. The body was tipped on one side and fell over. A bolt caught in Mr. Google's apron, dragging his leg under and the falling jigger came down on his knee and broke the patella or knee cap. It is a bad injury.

Aroostook.

Sheriff Barker has appointed as his deputies in Houlton, Messrs. Geo. G. Bickford an l Oscar P. Stevenson.

There are now in use, in Houlton, six steam engines for driving machinery. Five years ago there was not a steam engine in that town.

At the town meeting in Houlton last Wednesday, the town granted the temperance reform club a ten years' lease of a portion of the town lot on which to erect a temperance hall. Work on the building will be commenced immediately.

Sufficient funds having been obtained for the purpose of moving and repairing the Congregational church edifice in Houlton, the job will be commenced at an early day. It is to occupy a lot on Court street directly west of the court house.

A well six inches in diameter and fifty ft. deep has been drilled by steam power at the south-east corner of the court house at Houlton. There are thirty feet of water in the well. The work was done by Kinney & Watson of Houlton. The cost, exclusive of pump, is two dollars per foot.

In raising brown-face Cotswold sheep, Dr. Amis of Houlton, is a success. He cleared seventeen last week, the fleeces from which weighed 204 pounds, an average of 12 pounds to the fleece. He has had very good luck with his lambs, which find ready sale. He sold a buck recently to A. P. Cook of that town for $25. This breed of sheep are well adapted to that climate, yield heavy fleeces and their mutton is superior in quality.

Cumberland.

A little boy named Henry Hall, living in Po land, was very badly burned Monday afternoon by carelessness of a man emptying ashes. It seems he was laying down on the margin of Back Bay when a man not not noticing him dumped a load full of ashes fresh from the grate, and containing live coals over his head and shoulders. One side of his face was horribly blistered and his neck and shoulders badly burned.

Nineteen persons joined the Second Parish church, and four were admitted to the Congregational church, Woodford's Corner, Sunday.

Kennebec.

Payment of gold coin has been resumed in Hallowell. On Saturday last Mr. J. H. Sawtelle paid off his stone cutters and quarrymen in gold—the clear shiners, and the workmen can get dollar for dollar in exchange for goods and the necessaries of life. Poor show for greenbackers there.

There were fourteen deaths in Augusta, during the month of April—ten males, four females. Ages—Males, 20 yrs. 1 mos., 70 yrs. 7 mos., 72 yrs. 8 mos., 18 days, 42 yrs., 19 days, 25 yrs. 3 mos., 19 yrs. 10 mos., 9 yrs. 3 mos., 3 yrs. 4 mos. Females—57 yrs. 8 mos., 43 yrs. 10 mos., 9 yrs. 7 weeks.

E. C. Bean, Esq., receiver of Winthrop Savings Bank, makes the announcement that the third and last dividend of said bank will be paid to depositors on and after Monday, May 6th, at his office at Readfield. The assets have been $98,678.30. The amount of the dividends on the deposits are 73 1-10 per cent. Pretty well for a bank that was robbed. Now for the robbers, whom we shall be glad to have safely in Thomaston, where they ought to go.

Oxford.

Mr. Skillings commenced to put on an addition to the Bethel steam mill, a building 70 by 90 feet, and put in machinery to manufacture heelings, shovel and fork handles. The furnace is fed wholly with shavings and sawdust brought on endless belts from all parts of the mill, dumping their contents in front of the furnace. The debris of the mill is used up and the sawdust of one log is made to saw the next log.

Highlait Adams, Esq., of Gilead, was stricken down with a paralytic shock last Tuesday morning. He had been quite feeble for some time, but did his chores in the morning as usual, and had just finished his breakfast when he was attacked and would have fallen to the floor had not some member of the family caught him. He being some seventy-five years of age his recovery looks doubtful. He is entirely helpless and speechless.

Somerset.

Skowhegan village was aroused Sunday evening about nine o'clock by the ringing of a bell. Instead of a fire, however, it proved to be more sad still, the loss of a little boy about 8 years of age, son of Fred A. Dore, the new landlord of the Elm House. He went out to play between five and six o'clock P. M. Was missed between six and seven, and, on search being made, nothing could be found but his shoes, on the bank of the river, where he was last seen, which evidently tells the sad story to the bereaved parents. His body has not been found. The sympathies of our people are very much aroused.

The Kendall lumbermen are in a happy mood, having had a good winter's work in cutting and hauling their logs. The recent heavy rains will enable them to drive all to the mills at an early day.

Washington.

Mr. Walter Waterhouse of East Machias, was in Machias Village at a late hour on Wednesday evening in a state of intoxication. He had tied his horse near the stable of the Eastern Hotel. It would seem that Waterhouse, not knowing what he was about, started for home on foot, leaving his horse where he had fastened him. On Thursday morning he was found drowned near the causeway of the bridge between the ship yard and the west end of the bridge. Mr. Waterhouse was a young man and leaves a wife.

The Brooklyn police have discovered that the murder of the boatman Ferris, whose body was found a few days ago with a quantity of chain and a canvas bag full of iron attached to it, was committed on board the schooner Mary B. Harris of Machias, which vessel after discharging her cargo of lumber anchored near the Erie Basin. Capt. Crowley left her there in charge of two sailors and they did not return until four days after Ferris disappeared. He then took her to Jersey City, took on board some cargo and sailed for an Eastern port, where she is now expected to arrive. The canvas bag and chain belong to the schooner, and the captain made the two men pay for them, they stating they had lost them. One of the men, who left the schooner, was traced by Capt. Reilly of the Brooklyn police and arrested Thursday night. It is reported that he has confessed his crime.

FASHION GOSSIP.

Fancy buttons, with bank notes, postage stamps etc., on them, in enamel, are very fashionable in Paris as trimmings for dresses.

Later observations confirm the statement that gray will be a favorable color this season.

Black bonnets are superseded to a great extent by white ones.

A leading feature of the flower fashion this season is the willow catkin, a little fluffy, feathery looking blossom of those early trees—nearly every wreath and spray is made up with them.

Paris oils are more "dressy" than ornerly, and are trimmed with full frills of French lace and lined with white silk.

Lovely neckties come in cream-white silk, worked with chenille of the same hue.

For percale, lawn and calico dresses for young girls, the favorite model is the pointed basque with a square yoke in back and front, and a deep collar turned over as a Carrick, or else merely a Byron collar.

The princesse dresses worn by girls of twelve years, and the tiniest little ones also, are no longer plain, nor are they trimmed with scarfs. The fancy this season is to add jacket fronts to them.

Something handsome, lustrous and soft is the American armure pongee, of pure silk, in solid as well as double colors; in which black forms the background. The narrow zigzag stripe running lengthwise, is of cardinal red, dark blue or any other desirable color.

English barèges are again introduced, and combine very beautifully with silk and the same use is made of plain heavy crapes in light colors.

For evening dress a very pretty bertha is now worn. This graceful model is in white crape lisse, draped in flat folds round the corsage decollete. The bertha is rather low in front and at the back and long over the shoulders, where it falls in a square.

Printed silks which have black grounds, with pinhead dots, stripes, small sprays of leaves, or a delicate little flower in white, are among the most comfortable and best wearing materials for summer wear.

The new linen batistes are extremely delicate and in the most attractive color, and are made up like grenadines and worn on dressy occasions.

The old-fashioned indigo blue English calicoes, with bright orange figures, are used for young ladies' suits, made up with a white vest and blue buttons to match the dress material.

Dress linens, newly introduced, are in blue, buff and gray shades, and for these there are bands of embroidery.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

Let young men be patient in their wooing, for a maiden's love may be cold on her lips yet warm in her heart.

It is better to stay at home and sew up the rents in your children's clothes than to go to the Dorcas Society and sew for the heathen.

Men writing society novels anonymously always betray their sex by describing some heroine's costume as "cut bias."

The quiet fellow in the corner who lets his rivals do all the talking generally marries the girl.

Mme. Lydie Paschkoff writes to the Paris Figaro that women in America have sometimes a dozen divorced husbands, who have to pay them an allowance under penalty of imprisonment.

The blush of a maiden is nature's signal of warning.

Not one man in a thousand marries the girl he most wanted.

Danbury News—"There is a man in Virginia jail who has seven wives. He was arrested for marrying two girls in one village. He must be a music teacher."

Exchange—"At a full dress reception in Paris they called a man Adam because his wife's dress so closely resembled Eve's."

Robinson, of Hackensack, does not think that his daughter's beau should stay so late in the evening. The other morning she was praising the beau for his strength of character. "Yes," said Robinson, "he has great staying powers."

"Which party is the strongest, the greenback or the pullback?"—Whitehall Times. "Oh, the pullback has the most followers—and the largest number of papers to support it."—Norristown Herald.

Mrs. Mary C. Philotson, of New Jersey, the female dress reformer, continues to perambulate the streets of Baltimore, daily, clad in the attire of a male, and draws crowds of admiring spectators. She is 58 years of age, of kindly, pleasant countenance, possesses considerable culture, and is a thorough and enthusiastic worker in the cause she has espoused.

Josef Israels painted some time ago a picture of a young Dutch peasant woman sitting by a yet empty cradle and sewing the little garments of its future occupant. The woman's quiet and touching face is ugly, her dress homely and modest, and picture is solemnly, nay austerely, pure; the artist called it "Expectation". Is it in deference to public sensitiveness, asks the London World, that it is now being exhibited at Goupil's Gallery with the title, destructive of its best meaning, of "The Busy Housewife?"

NIHILISM IN RUSSIA.

[From the Boston Traveller.]

The cable despatches which have been published relative to the trial and acquittal of the woman, Vera Sassulitch, upon the charge of shooting General Trepoff, the St Petersburg chief of police, have failed to convey any impression of the significance of the result, and of the profound impression which it has made throughout Europe. We have heard time and again the statement that Russia is "honeycombed with Nihilism," but have hitherto seen little proof of the assertion, except the occasional shipment of a batch of the conspirators to Siberia, or the confiscation of incendiary literature.

The strength of the movement seemed to have been over-rated, and many doubtless supposed that the dreaded Nihilists were terrible only in imagination and likely to add another confirmation to the correctness of the Latin adage which naturally suggests itself in this connection. The revelations of the Sassulitch trial, however show that the influence of Nihilism has been rather under than over-estimated, and that well-nigh every rank and class of society has been permeated by its theories. The state of affairs existing in Russia at this moment is only paralleled by the condition of France just previous to the outbreak of the first French Revolution, when the nobles, courtiers and literary men living under the most rigorous despotism, talked eloquently of liberty, equality and fraternity, and promulgated sentiments which were one day destined to involve them in a common destruction with the throne, the altar and every institution of a conservative tendency. Revolution is in the air, and the noticeable feature of the case is that the intelligent, wealthy and cultivated classes, those hitherto supposed to be most amenable to government influence, are among the most zealous upholders and sympathizers with the new doctrines.

The government resolved to leave no stone unturned for the conviction of Vera Sassulitch; and in order to insure, as they thought, a favorable verdict, packed the jury with government officials, no fewer than nine of whom were put on the jury. Even the audiences which crowded the court room were carefully chosen, spectators being only admitted by tickets not transferable. In spite of these precautions the prisoner, about whose offence technically there could be no possible doubt, was triumphant y acquitted by the packed jury, and her release hailed with enthusiastic plaudits by the carefully selected audience. Evidently the state of affairs has been reached foreshadowed by Moore in his "Fables for the Holy Alliance," of which allusions body Russia was one of the leading members:

"A captain has been known to think
Even cr coals have been heard to reason.
And reasoners, whether clad in pink,
Or red, or blue, are on the brink
Nine cases out of ten, of treason."

The extinguishers have themselves taken fire. Perhaps the most remarkable manifestation in this case, however, is the attitude of the press, which, since the trial, have, without distinction of party, published a series of bitter and outspoken attacks on the government. They openly approve the verdict, and all warnings and threats of the authorities are utterly unheeded. The Golos, the leading St. Petersburg journal, says: "We have got laws, judges and courts—but all this is but a mockery; the laws are not executed; the judges are powerless before the secret police; we have no rights no personal liberty. What is our nation waiting for?" Why does not the press speak out boldly in the very face of the censors, the Minister of the Police and all his agents?" The Russky Mir, a paper hitherto noted for its conservatism, remarks that "It is now evident that personal liberty and security are but an empty word in our country; all the rules of civilized criminal procedure, instituted by the law of 1864, are paralyzed by the power of a police, working in the dark, whose disgusting mysteries have been strikingly illustrated by the Sassulitch case. The despotism and corruption of our administrative system pollute our national honor, now more than ever, while we are pretending to act as "liberators" abroad. How long shall we still have to bear with this shame?"

Some of the radical journals are more violent in tone. "If things do not change," says the Novole Vremia, "the time will soon come when that same cry, 'To Siberia,' will be raised against those men who have so long robbed and dishonored our people." The effect of the agitation has been the dismissal of Gen. Trepoff from office, showing that even the harsh despotism of Russia is amenable to public opinion. What the ultimate result will be can only be conjectured. That the excitement will have some effect upon the present crisis is generally admitted, but opinions are divided as to whether the Czar will have recourse to that time-honored expedient of arbitrary governments—a foreign war—for the purpose of allaying domestic discontent, or whether the intestine commotions of his Empire will operate as an additional incentive to peace abroad.

We publish elsewhere a communication from Rev. C. H. Wheeler, formerly a missionary in Turkey, calling attention to "mistakes" in the spelling of Turkish names as they appear in the telegraph columns. When one considers the somewhat difficult spelling of the names of places, many of which do not appear on the maps, and that some of the despatches are cabled to the United States after two o'clock in the morning of the day on which they are printed, that they are transferred or "repeated" some four or five times, that operators, reporters, clerks, night editors, compositors and proof readers are liable to mistakes, the wonder is that they are so correctly printed as they are. A small map was sent in with the communication and some of the names on the map are spelled differently than in the communication, but it would be difficult to say which is right. When war was first declared, it is stated, a night editor on receiving the despatch announcing it, took down an atlas, mournfully looked over the names of localities and cities, thought a moment of the labor and vexation involved in preparing the despatches which would be sent and quietly glided out and committed suicide.

Those sections of the country which clamored for the "dollar of our daddies" are not taking many of them. Up to May 4th Cincinnati had taken only $2847 of the new coinage for greenbacks, while New York had taken $73,850, Chicago only $1,000 against Philadelphia $321,780, and St. Louis $1765 to Baltimore $3502. Even Washington is ahead of the great silver cities having taken $83,000.

There is food for reflection in the following paragraphs which we copy from the Boston Journal: "There are said to be a large number of men in the aggregate sitting idly about stores depots and other loafing places in New England villages, complaining of hard times, advocating Greenbackism and waiting for something to turn up in their favor. They are waiting for luck to return to them or perhaps to come to them for the first time. They will wait in vain as they have hitherto waited. In the vicinity of those villages are a great many acres of untilled soil which might be made to return a harvest and by some means the most of these waiters might get a piece to plant. This would not only afford them a moderate return but would afford them the luxury of employment and of that real repose which follows an honest day's work."

"In this connection, it cannot be too earnestly urged upon farmers in New England to make every possible effort to increase the acreage of their tilled fields the present season, planting such seed as will afford a harvest which will add to their available food supply without regard to the market. No class complains more of hard times and of a lack of money, but those who raise their foodstuffs have much less call for money than those who do not. By clearing up the corners of fields and otherwise increasing the production of grass fields and pastures hundreds of farmers in New England would be able to keep one more cow than they now do. This two-edged "bitter always commands a good price and the amount which might be made by such an increase of stock as is above indicated would be sufficient to put a large sum of money into circulation."

"Complaining, repining, scolding, wishing for good days and voting for grasshopper demagogues will not bring prosperity, but it can be partially achieved by each man making the most of all his resources and doing all that he can to make himself self-supporting."

The British Parliament has reassembled in good time to enable the Liberals to watch the course of affairs, and call the Ministry to account should it commit any blunders. Already the Parliamentary skirmishers have cut strained the Government to admit that it is in Negotiation with Russia and that there is no occasion for anxiety. The Opposition have also made it evident that there is a strong sentiment against the employment of East Indian troops in European warfare without Parliamentary sanction. The Radicals just now regard the precedent as dangerous, and apprehend that Sepoys might be used to terrorize Englishmen, if the Crown is to be at liberty to transfer troops of any class from one part of the Empire to another. Henceforth in every matter of this kind, the Government will have to undergo the scrutiny of resolute Liberals, such as Bright, Fawcett, and Lawson, who will not be coerced by numbers, nor cajoled by popular sentiment.

The Hambletonian stallion Rising Sun one of the finest-bred horses in Orange County, New York, was killed by his owner, Dr. J. A. Schultz Saturday night. The horse was 21 years old. An offer of $7000 was once refused for him. Nineteen years ago he began to exhibit signs of viciousness that increased as he grew older. Finally he became almost unmanageable, and since then he has been known as the "Man-eater." He has killed three men, and wounded and disfigured twenty others.

MAINE NEWS.

THE CIMBRIA.

SOME LEGAL POINTS.

Liable to Confiscation.

ELLSWORTH, May 9. It is to be feared that war declared would put the Cimbria in great danger, for though England has stuck to the principle that neutra ships make neutral goods' and has fought occasion to emphasize to us that free ships make free passengers, yet the suspicion attaching to this vessel is so great that an English cruiser would be justified in taking her into port to be tried by the courts and her stay in South-West Harbor alone has furnished enough evidence to prove in court that the pretended passengers are Russian naval officers and seamen. Under such evidence the Cimbria might be confiscated for conveying enemy's forces and her passengers made prisoners of war, but Captain Baden-hasen is not to be alarmed. He keeps up a little steam in a small boiler and has had the cylinder heads unscrewed to clean. He says he can get up full steam and weigh anchor in one hour any time. He awaits orders,' and we further developments.

PORTLAND, May 8. It is rumored that the Evans Rifle Company of Machinhies Falls is filling a large order for the Russians received by the Cimbria.'

NEW YORK, May 8. Count Alexieff, one of the Cimbria's officers, and who ranks high in the Russian Navy, is here en route to Washington. Some brother officers were expected.

BONDSMEN SUED.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 8. The town of York has sued the bondsmen of Geo. F. Plaisted, who was Treasurer and Collector in 1875, finding his accounts short $774. The Selectmen have called a meeting for May 13th to see what can be done. Plaisted recently published a card denying the charge.

THE EAST MAINE CONFERENCE.

Thirty-first Annual Session.

ROCKLAND, May 8. The thirty-first annual session of the East Maine Conference of the Methodist Church began this morning at the Methodist church in this city, Bishop Stephen M. Merrill presiding. A spirited prayer meeting was held at half past eight and the first service of the conference proper was the sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered by Bishop Merrill, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Church, Pratt, Pringle and Day. Rev. B. S. Arey was re-elected Secretary and Rev. L. D. Wardwell, cashier of the Conference. The standing committees were then confirmed, after which the examination of classes was taken up. W. F. Chase, C. W. Vesper, J. Bream remain on trial; J. R. Baker, C. Rogers were advanced to deacons of the second class; E. H. Tuncliffe was continued first year, S. H. Bailey located at his own request, A. J. Clifford advanced to an elder of the second class, M. D. Miller, C. H. Bray continued first year; Superannuates, E. Bryant, B. F. Stinson, C. H. Bray, N. Webb, N. Whitney. Rev. R. L. Dashiell D. D., addressed the Conference on the subject of missions. At two P. M., a missionary sermon was preached by Rev. W. W. Marsh to a large congregation. The sermon was followed by a business meeting of the Conference missionary society. At seven thirty P. M. the missionary anniversary occurred with addresses by Rev. Dr. Dashiell and Bishop Merrill. Much interest is manifested in the meetings which are highly attended.

MASONIC.

R. and S. M.

PORTLAND, May 8. The Masonic Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters elected P. L. Day, Lewiston, Grand Master; Ira Berry, Portland, Grand Recorder. The Grand Chapter adjourned at noon to-day. The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar met this evening. Josiah H. Drummond of Portland was elected Grand Commander, and Ira Berry of Portland Grand Recorder.

FROM FORT FAIRFIELD.

A Sad Case.

FORT FAIRFIELD, May 6. At Bath, N. B., a Miss Smith drowned herself and child, six years old, in the St. John River. A rescue was attempted, but persistently refused by her. She had been recently at work in Lewiston and was engaged to an overseer of a mill, but the engagement was broken by him and when she returned home recently, hearing that he was married, she took her illegitimate child to the river, bound it, threw it in and jumped in after it. A man threw her a long scarf, which she violently flung from her and perished.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS. Second Session

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 8.

Mr. Cockrell called up the House bill to forbid further retirement of United States Regular Army officers, read several times yesterday, and said it was not his intention to attempt to force immediate action on the bill. From statements made to him by members of the Committee on Finance, that bill could be reported back probably by Tuesday next, and he withdrew any opposition to reference. The bill was then referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Ingalls in explanation of the figures quoted yesterday during the debate on the pension appropriation bill as to the number of names added to the pension roll, said the number added thus far of survivors of the war of 1812, was but 1,660. The actual number of applications filed had stated the number was 10,461. That was the number of applications filed, not the number of pensions granted. Up to Saturday last the number of applications filed was 11,003.

Mr. Sargent said he supposed the chairman of the Committee on Pensions was correct as to figures. He, (Sargent) understood that 10,461 names had been added to the roll. The fact that so many applications have been filed showed that the expenditure on account of pensions would be large.

Mr. Davis of Ills., gave notice that when the Indian appropriation bill was disposed of he would ask the Senate to consider the bill reported from the Judiciary Committee providing for the distribution of awards made under the Convention between the United States and Mexico.

The Senate resumed consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill to which several amendments were proposed and a long discussion ensued pending which Mr. Edmunds submitted a resolution directing the Commissioners of the district of Columbia to report to the Senate what church property in the district, taxed under act of June 1874, is in arrears in regard to such tax and if steps have been taken to enforce the collection of the tax. Agreed to.

Mr. Trumbull gave notice that as soon as the Indian appropriation bill was disposed of he would press the bill to repeal the bankrupt law to a vote.

Mr. Windom gave notice that as soon as the Indian Appropriation bill was disposed of the Post office appropriation bill would be called.

Mr. Gordon introduced a bill for the improvement of the sanitary condition of Washington and deepening of the river channel. Referred.

Mr. Matthews introduced a bill to amend sec. 1224 R. S., in regard to incorporation of banking associations by the legislature of Washington territory.

The Senate at 5:30 went into executive session and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

House.

The Speaker announced the appointment of Census Committee as follows: Cox of N. Y., Mills, Stenger, Ligon, Smith of Ga., Carlisle, Hatcher, Ballou, Jorgenson, Flynn and Williams of Oregon.

Mr. Harris of Va., Chairman of the Committee on Elections, reported resolutions in regard to contested election cases from the Second District of South Carolina, the Sixth District of Mississippi, and Oregon, declaring the sitting members Cain, Chalmers and Williams, respectively, entitled to seats. The resolutions were a legislative and the House resumed consideration of the bill to regulate inter-State commerce and prevent discrimination by common carriers.

By a vote of 107 yeas to 152 nays the House refused to limit the general debate on the tariff bill to two hours, and a long debate on the bill took place at the conclusion of which the Committee rose without action on it.

Mr. Ellis introduced a bill to incorporate the Ocean Navigation Company, and restore the shipping interests of the United States. Referred. Also for the relief of Norman Ward. The House took a recess.

The evening session was for general debate only.

THE FRAUD SIBERIA.

A "Prominent" Democrat Interviewed.

WASHINGTON, May 8. A Democrat, member of the House, prominent in the movement for the investigation of the alleged Florida and Louisiana Presidential frauds, says that those who have the subject in hand could not report a resolution with that view to-day for the reason that they have not yet agreed upon the form and details, but such a resolution will be introduced some day this week. The Committee on Judiciary will be entrusted with the investigation. He expresses confidence that it will pass and says every Democrat and a number of Republicans will vote for it in order that the country may be satisfied of the character of the votes awarded to Hayes and Wheeler in Florida and Louisiana. The committee will not inquire into the question of eligibility of the present incumbents, but leave the facts elicited by investigation to speak for themselves.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Greenbackers' Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8. The State Convention of the National party began today; about 200 delegates representing the whole State were present. Chairman Deavis' address reviewed the condition of the party, stating that from 5000 votes in 1875, it increased to nearly 55,000 votes in 1877, and with its thorough organization, there was no reason why entire success should not be achieved by the party in the coming campaign. There is present in the convention a delegation of ladies representing the Citizens' Suffrage Association who will endeavor to have a woman's rights plank inserted in the platform. David Kerk was elected temporary chairman and made an address in which he denounced the National Banking System and, claimed the Nation should honor its own paper. After the appointment of a committee on credentials, the convention took a recess.

While awaiting the report of the Committee on Credentials at the afternoon session, several speeches were made some of them of rather a Communistic nature. After the report of the Committee, permanent organization and platform Committees were appointed and a recess taken till evening.

Trouble Ariseth.

At the evening session Hon. F. A. Hayes was made chairman of the permanent organization. The convention ballots for a candidate for the Supreme Judgeship, Bently receiving 114, and Agney 94 votes. The Committee on Resolutions was sent for and came into the Hall. A resolution was offered and adopted proposing that the convention recognize no candidates that has any affiliation with the old parties. Immediately there was a wholesale denunciation of candidates. Hon. Hendrick B. Wright was accused of being a Democrat dyed in the wool. Mr. Armstrong was accused of being a Republican who was not sincere in the Greenback cause. There was crimination recrimination.

The Wildest Confusion Ensued.

Forty members were on their feet at once, yelling for the ballot on the Governorship and others moving to adjourn and still others gesticulating and bawling at the top of their voices. It was finally decided to proceed to ballot on the Governorship. A motion to nominate S. R. Mason by acclamation was lost. The name of Thomas B. Marshall was withdrawn and two being taken resulting in the choice of Mason. Shearer was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor and Wright for Secretary of Internal affairs.

The convention then took up the platform which generally reaffirms the principles adopted in the National Cincinnati at Toledo, last February, and discussion ensued which at a late hour was going on

WASHINGTON.

The Sapp Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 8. The House Committee on Public Lands to-day by a majority vote, decided to recommend the passage of the so-called 5 per cent. bill, introduced this session by Representative Sapp of Iowa. The bill provides for the payment by the General Government to the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, Oregon, Nevada and Colorado, 5 per centum on locations of military lands therein, estimating the same at $1.25 per acre. Payment is to be made in Treasury certificates running twenty years, and bearing interest at the rate of 3.65 per cent. per annum. Several millions of dollars are involved. A report against the bill will be presented by Mr. Patterson of Colorado in behalf of the minority of the Committee.

THE COAL MINERS.

Strike on the Chicago & Alton Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, May 8. A large number of laborers on the extension of the Chicago & Alton Railroad, between Mexico and Marshall, Mo., are on a strike. Several hundred are said to be congregated at Glasgow, where one was killed Monday and another badly wounded. The Sheriff of Howard county, with a strong posse of citizens, failed to quell the disturbance.

Trouble Ariseth.

At the evening session Hon. F. A. Hayes was made chairman of the permanent organization. The convention ballots for a candidate for the Supreme Judgeship, Bently receiving 114, and Agney 94 votes. A Committee on Resolutions was sent for and came into the Hall. A resolution was offered and adopted proposing that the convention recognize no candidates that has any affiliation with the old parties. Immediately there was a wholesale denunciation of candidates. Hon. Hendrick B. Wright was accused of being a Democrat dyed in the wool. Mr. Armstrong was accused of being a Republican who was not sincere in the Greenback cause. There was crimination recrimination.

The Wildest Confusion Ensued.

Forty members were on their feet at once, yelling for the ballot on the Governorship and others moving to adjourn and still others gesticulating and bawling at the top of their voices. It was finally decided to proceed to ballot on the Governorship. A motion to nominate S. R. Mason by acclamation was lost. The name of Thomas B. Marshall was withdrawn and two being taken resulting in the choice of Mason. Shearer was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor and Wright for Secretary of Internal affairs.

The convention then took up the platform which generally reaffirms the principles adopted in the National Cincinnati at Toledo, last February, and discussion ensued which at a late hour was going on

Gaining a Treasurer.

DEADWOOD, May 8. Geo. P. Brigham having failed to furnish bonds as County Treasurer, the Commissioners ordered the office vacant and the sheriff was instructed to take possession. Brigham refused to allow the sheriff to enter, but the latter broke open the door. Brigham refused to give up the combination to open the safe. After several hours occupation the sheriff went out temporarily, when Brigham opened the safe and was about to take the books away when the sheriff entered and pushed his knee into the safe, Brigham trying to shut the door. The sheriff pulled the trigger of his revolver, but failed to explode. Brigham was then secured by a deputy and jailed, the sheriff securing the safe and books for the county.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ENGLAND'S IRREDUCIBLE MINIMUM.

Reported Quarrel Between the Czar and French Ambassador.

NEW YORK, May 8. The Herald's correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs that the capital is greatly excited regarding a quarrel at the Palace. It appears that the French Ambassador, General Leflo, just from Paris, called upon the Emperor Monday, and had a long interview. In answer to an inquiry from the Czar as to what France would do in event of war Leflo replied that France certainly would not interfere in favor of either belligerent. The Emperor was greatly offended at this remark, and some ill-tempered language followed. The result was that the French Ambassador concluded the interview by saying: "France has paid sufficiently dear for the right which she now claims to steer clear of other nations' quarrels." The Czar was received in private audience on such high dudgeon, that Leflo has declared his intention to ask to be recalled.

No Fear of a Coup de Main.

LONDON, May 8. A Russian coup de main is no longer dreaded or believed possible in view of the condition and numbers of the Turkish army. According to the Turkish view the Russians ought to withdraw beyond Adrianople so as to occupy a line fixed by the Eastern limit of Bulgaria. The Turks, however, propose to surrender the places one after the other, so as to allow the Muscovites time to perform their part of the engagement. Should this method be followed Shumla will probably be the first, Varna second and Batoum the last surrendered.

An Irreducible Minimum.

LONDON, May 9. The Daily Telegraph has the following from its Vienna correspondent: Count Schouvaloff has notified him what may be considered as England's irreducible minimum. Simultaneously Mr. de Novikoff the Russian Ambassador at Vienna will be informed that Austria maintains the objections she has already made. I hear from a high official source that when the English and Austrian reclamations are accepted little or nothing of Count Ignatieff's scheme will remain.

Troub es in England.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

Suffering of the Strikers.

LONDON, May 8. The demands on charity by the strike district are already very heavy. At a meeting of the Preston poor law Guardians yesterday it was stated here had been a great increase in the number of applications for parish relief during the week. Deputations have waited upon the employers at Blackburn to solicit aid for the more distressed cases and in many instances the requests were acceded to soup and other necessities being provided. The Accrington co-operative society have resolved to open a soup kitchen. The demands for relief at Burnley are increasing and an effort will be made to open a soup kitchen there or make distributions of food to families in want. The decision reaffirmed at Manchester to carry out a general lockout will throw a couple of thousand people into the street, and thus the number of people in need of help will be augmented while those able to contribute to the strike fund will be correspondingly reduced. Though the crisis is so alarming the operatives seem in nowise excited nor greatly depressed. Last night a largely attended meeting of private cotton spinners and representatives of limited companies was held at Oldham to consider the question of running on short time. It was generally understood that four days a week would be accepted. Some mills are now running three days a week. At a meeting of the owners of the Burg district representing 3883 looms and 35,000 spindles the opinion was unanimous expressed that a reduction of wages was necessary, but it was resolved to postpone action until all the masters of that district were consulted.
